

Weir Farm Artist-in-Residence Reception

Meet Kim Henry

Monday, November 17 • 6 - 7:30 pm

Wilton Library

November brings Kim Henry to the Weir Farm Artist-in-Residence program. Ms. Henry is interested in the landscape within a landscape - the microcosm that is revealed on closer inspection: the world that emerges from the surface of a pool, the cavern at the foot of a tree trunk, the forest growing in a patch of grass, or the glacier advancing across a frozen puddle. At Weir Farm she aims to 'zoom in,' to focus on subtleties in color and textural details that capture the essence of nature in a more abstract way and reveal the landscape within a landscape.

Weir Farm's Artist-in-Residence program (AIR) selects twelve artists to live and work at Weir Farm each year. To date, 183 artists from throughout the U.S., as well as Tunisia, Germany, Australia, India and the Netherlands have participated in the AIR program. Visual artists apply for one month residencies in all media and diverse artistic points of view from traditional to experimental.

The program is co-sponsored by Weir Farm Art Center and Weir Farm National Historic Site and presented by Wilton Library. There is no charge. Registration is suggested.
